PUBLIC NOTICE

The United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania has filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission proposed decreases, increases, and changes in the charges for connecting, moving, or changing telephone service or equipment. The Company is proposing service connection charges more closely aligned with the cost of performing the various work functions necessary to connect, move, or change phone service.

This change will not affect any of the Company's present customers unless they request changes in their telephone service.

The proposed changes are contained in a tariff which is open for your inspection at the offices of the Company or the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission in Harrisburg. If you desire additional information regarding this matter, you may contact the Company or the Public Utility Commission offices, Harrisburg, PA 17120. The tariff is subject to thorough examination by the Commission, which may suspend its effectiveness, or institute a formal investigation thereof, or both, if it is deemed appropriate.
