Ebersole is the 11th president of E-town College

Dr. Mark C. Ebersole, who has held top administrative posts at Bucknell University, the Ford Foundation and Temple University, became the 11th President of Elizabethtown College on July 1. He succeeds Dr. Morley J. Mays, who reached mandatory retirement age after 11 years in the presidency.

Dr. Mays subsequently was elected interim President of Albright College.

An alumnus of Elizabethtown College, Class of 1943, Dr. Ebersole, 55, brings to the institution 25 years of experience in higher education, 16 of them in important administrative posts.
