Hunter education course

The Mount Joy Sportsmen's Association will again sponsor a Hunter Education Course on Sat., August 20. This one day course will get underway at 1:00 p.m. and will be finished the same day. Club instructors advise that prospective participants may register upon arrival at the clubhouse, and that no equipment or materials are needed. Registration starts at 12:30 p.m.

The Pennsylvania Game Commission reminds us that all persons under 16 years of age must qualify to purchase their first hunting license by satisfactorily completing the Hunter Education Course offered by our club. This is a fine opportunity to meet the requirements needed to obtain that first hunting license, and the course is free. All ages are invited, you don't have to be a first time hunter to take this course.

HELPFUL INFORMATION

These Informative booklets, and many others, are available free of charge from the people at 630 Janet Avenue, Lancaster. You can either write or call 299-2821, and they'll send you the appropriate publication. You can also pick them up in quantity if you go to the Lancaster Information Center at the same address. The "Where to Call Guide" is especially useful for anyone who might have a problem of some sort at some time. Get one soon—you'll never know when it will come in handy. Remember, it's free, so put your tax dollar to work for yourself. Also, watch for the Community Services Directory that will be published this autumn.

Missionaries to teach at Breezy View School

Former missionaries to Zambia, Africa, have been chosen as teachers for the coming year at Breezy View Christian School, Columbia. Mr. Mark Horst will teach Grades 5 and 6 primarily and his wife, Esther, will teach grades 7 and 8. They will exchange classes for some subjects and work as a team.

Mrs. Horst taught in Conewago Elementary School in York, Pa. and Mr. Horst taught in York Haven, Pa. and Manchester, Pa. in addition to teaching in the mission school in Choma, Zambia. The Horsts each have Master's Degrees in Elementary Education as well as eight years of teaching experience.

Mrs. Martha Starr, Mrs. Horst's younger sister, also of Mount Joy and a former teacher in Africa, will be the kindergarten teacher. She taught in Harrisburg and Dover, Pa. as well as in Africa. All are members of the Brethren-in-Christ Church.

Mrs. Ellen Collison of Mount Joy will teach Grade 1 and a special pre-first class. Miss Margaret Charles of Washington Boro, a recent graduate of Messiah College will be the teacher of grades 2 and 3.

Applications from students continue to come in and it appears the school will have a larger student body than last year. Those interested in information about the school may call 684-9400.
