DID YOU HEAR...

Ida Germer, 325 Marietta Avenue, Mount Joy, grew a 2 1/4 pound tomato in her back yard.

The Germers haven't eaten it yet—they are still showing it off to their neighbors.

WHEN YOU SELL IT, SERVICE IT, AND STAND BEHIND IT, THERE'S NO ONE TO PASS THE BUCK TO.

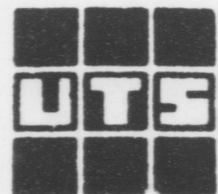

That's what full-line service is all about to the 2,350 people who work at United Telephone.

Whether it's telephones for your home or advanced business communications equipment for your company, our people have the products, training and expertise to handle the job.

And since the customers we serve are the same neighbors we live with, we make sure the job is done right.

We're always ready to stand up and answer for our phone service.

Jackie Gainer poses with the cover design she made for the new cookbook.

Mount Joy Joycee-ettes prepare cookbook

The Mount Joy Joycee-ettes are preparing a new cookbook to commemorate their 25th Anniversary. The book will contain over 300 recipes of local women.

The books are properly bound for kitchen convenience: they lie flat when opened, and the plastic covers are easily cleaned.

Jackie Gainer, a Joycee-ette, designed the cover.

The cookbook has a special section of up-to-date basic cooking information, and features a handy "thumb index" for quick reference on such diverse topics as ways to use leftovers and a metric conversion chart.

The new books will be available in October at a cost of $3.50, but you can place your order now by sending your name, address, phone number, and quantity desired, to Cindy Stoner, 25 N. Barbara St., Mount Joy 17552, or to Sue Thomas, 130 S. River St., Maytown 17550. You might want to order some as Christmas gifts.

The Joycee-ettes extend their thanks to all women who contributed their recipes for publication.
