FIFTEEN CENTS

Shown outside Fay Sherman's Restaurant in Marietta are Harold Kulman, Harry Hartman, Ken Ross, and Bob Spangler. They had been inside discussing the trees.

$50,651 are brought into Marietta by filing a form; more Federal $$ expected soon

A committee appointed by the Marietta Borough Council has brought in $50,651 for Marietta. The money will be used to plant trees.

The temporary committee, consisting of councilman Ken Ross, Harry Hartman, Harold Kulman, Jay Roberts, Father Red, and Robert Spangler, got the money by sending an application to the Lancaster-Lebanon Manpower Consortium. The money will go to the Marietta Council, which will buy the trees and hire CETA workers to plant them.

The Borough will hire the workers—four arborists (tree planters) and one foreman—out of a selection of candidates sent by the State Employment Agency. Tree planting will start downtown and move out along major streets. The species of trees to be planted are yet to be decided, but they won't be saplings, but rather half-grown, 12 inch diameter plants.

Damaged or inferior trees now in place may be removed in some cases.

"We're hoping for donations from from individuals and the Council to make the project even better," said Harold Kulman, who drew up the proposal. Even if the funds are limited to the basic fifty thousand, though, he still feels that it will be a "beautiful project." He noted that "The Borough has wanted to plant trees for some time, but couldn't afford it."

Breckline charged

Former Marietta Borough department head William P. Breckline was formally charged with criminal theft Monday afternoon. The charge, "theft by failure to make required disposition of funds," is a misdemeanor in the first degree.

It carries a maximum sentence of five years in jail and a $10,000 fine, but the maximum penalties are rarely imposed.

A preliminary hearing in District Justice Ray Knorr's courtroom has been scheduled for Oct. 6. If the borough and police department of Marietta can establish a prima facie case against Mr. Breckline at that hearing, he will be tried in Lancaster's Court of Common Pleas.

Mr. Breckline has been a well-liked and respected member of borough government for many years. His sudden dismissal last week shocked the community.

Up to this point, both Mr. Breckline and the councilmen who fired him have refused to comment on the case, except to say that it involves an alleged mishandling of parking funds.

It is known that two of the seven councilmen voted against Mr. Breckline's ouster.

Pupil transfer dispute settled

The last meeting of the Donegal School Board was attended by a group of parents, who were protesting the transfer of their children from Grandview to Seiler elementary schools. The students had been transferred, in an effort to balance class sizes, because they live in a "swing area," one which could be considered as either Grandview or Seiler territory.

The parents presented a list of reasons why their children should not be moved, and complained of not being informed of the planned move sooner. The Board apologized to the parents but refused to Anything Goes!

Here we see members of the Mount Joy Jaycees and Mount Joy Athletic Association practicing for Anything Goes, to be held on Saturday, September 3rd, from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and 5 to 7:30 p.m. The morning events will be volleyball at the Mount Joy Pool, and a baseball game at Kunkle Field. In the evening there will be a tug of war, biking through pylons, jumping over haybales, water balloon tossing, pie-eating, bag races, water balloon relay races, climbing through tires, racing in and out of boxes....etc.

Anything Goes is sponsored by the Mount Joy Recreation Association.

change their plans immediately.

Since the meeting the School Board has worked out a new arrangement which avoids moving children whose parents object. Students whose parents have agreed to the move will be transferred. A total of 16 students were in question.

Dale Arnold, head of the School Board, said that the parents he had spoken with were satisfied with the new plan. He cautioned however, that it remains to be seen whether the plan will work. Arrangements may have to be altered during the first few weeks of school, if class balance is not achieved.

"You can't have 20 kids in one class and 30 in another," he said.

In other business, the Board awarded contracts for re-roofing and heating system renovation. The roofing will cost $35,652, and the heating system at the junior high will cost $140,001.

A permanent computer terminal will be installed, hooked up to the machine at E-town College.

48 substitute teachers were approved. Their pay will be the same as last year's, $33.50 per day.

Rick Breault and Dennis Engle were approved as cheerleading advisors, and Jill Shupp and Rick Topper were named as assistant hockey and football coaches, respectively.

Norlanco Medical center staff will replace Dr. O'Conner this year. The Center will serve Grandview, Seiler, Kraybill, and the Junior and Senior High schools.

The following persons were approved as one-year substitutes: Mrs. Susannah Ansell, Beahm music; Clifford Shank, Jr., Seiler; Deborah Tyndall, Maytown elementary; Mary Sheetz, Riverview; Mrs. Rudelle Wert, Business ed. at DHS; Mrs. Connie Koser, Maytown; and Mrs. Cheryl Wise, elementary art.
