

"Funtime Fashions" will be shown Sept. 10

Deb Newcomer models a spearmint green one-piece dress styled in the new two-piece look — and featuring the new cowl neckline.

Harriet Ney models Winter Rose slacks with print sweater to match and winter white floppy hat.

Joycee-ettes sponsor show

On this page you see some of the fashions that will be displayed at the Mount Joy Joycee-ettes' Funtime Fashions show to be held Saturday, Sept. 10th at Hostetter's Dining Hall, at 11:30 a.m.

Presenting fashions from the Orange Owl and Kenny Smith Sport Shop, the show is chaired by LaVon Harnish, Harriet Ney, and Nancy Nestleroth. Proceeds will go to the Scholarship Fund.

Some of the models will be Gloria Longenecker, Joi Shearer, Kris McCue, Bea Sentz, Mary Gingrich, and Stacy Miller.

Following the lunch of fried chicken and side dishes, the show will begin. Hand-crafted door prizes will be awarded the lucky, as well as two $30 coupons good at the Orange Owl and Kenny Smith Sports Shop.

Tickets to Funtime Fashions are $5.50. If you have any questions, call Patsy Hoffer at 653-5958.

Cindy Stoner wears green and rust plaid slacks and vest with rust cowl neck top. She sets it all off with a fisherman's knit natural-colored sweater with toggle-closing front and the ever popular hood.

See F&M game free!

September 10th is "Youth Day" at F&M.

On the occasion of the football game with Albright College, F&M is inviting any interested youth organizations to attend the game free of charge.

Notices have been sent to scouts, athletic teams, church groups, and others, but any group which has not received a notice is welcome. The college requests only that adequate adult supervision be provided, in a ratio of about ten kids to one adult.

This will be the 6th Youth Day at F&M. Last year about 2000 kids came.

If your organization is interested, call 291-3981 between 9:00 and 4:00 p.m.
