WEATHERPROOFING

If you're planning to buy an electrically heated home... Energy-Efficient Homes Offer More

... Take windows and doors for instance. PP&L approved Energy Efficient Homes must have either double-pane insulated windows or storm windows as a minimum requirement. All exterior doors must be the "insulated" type or have storm doors installed.

Equally important, is what goes around window and door frames. Cracks must be tightly sealed against leaks. It's done by packing in strips of insulation or "foaming in" a urethane material that fills even the smallest crevices.

This is but one example of the quality design features you'll find in every Energy Efficient Home. There are dozens more... covering everything from wall and ceiling insulation down to the heating system and fireplace.

That's why, if you're thinking of a new electrically heated home, it'll pay you to look for one that qualifies for the Energy Efficient Home Award. It's your assurance that you'll be getting the most practical energy-saving features that money can buy.

If your builder is not familiar with the requirements of an Energy Efficient Home, call PP&L.
