United Way kick-off

United Way of Lancaster has kicked off this year's $2.4 million fund raising campaign.

Harold A. Horn, volunteer campaign chairman, said that the goal is a 14.5% increase over the amount raised last year.

The United Way provides services to people from all income groups, helping one person every 52 seconds on the average. It works on the problems that are found in all communities—juvenile delinquency, alcoholism, drug abuse, divorce, and many others. All these problems are on the increase.
