

RALPH M SNYDER
R.D. 2 BOX 3040
MOUNT JOY, PA. 17552

SUSQUEHANNA TIMES

Susquehanna Times & The Mount Joy Bulletin
MARIETTA & MOUNT JOY, PA.

Vol. 77 No. 36 September 21, 1977

FIFTEEN CENTS

INSIDE:

Oops! The School Board almost forgot, but tax cut is possible

STORY ON PAGE 2

Police controversy in Mount Joy

How dangerous is Mount Joy? Officers want back-up men.

STORY ON PAGE 3

New contract doesn't include Chief Kline; he doesn't like that.

STORY ON PAGE 4

Grandview parents upset

about proposal to sell land they bought for kids' conservation project

STORY ON PAGE 2

New health center opens in Marietta

The opening of the new facilities of the Donegal-Conoy Family Health Center on Route 441 in Marietta last Sunday was attended by more than 500 residents of the area that the Center serves.

Visitors were given tours of the new building by staff members Dr. Richard Charles, Joyce Embly, Stephen Nagle, Louis Fackler and Marilyn Edsell. Ambulances from Marietta, Maytown, Mount Joy, Bainbridge and Columbia were on display.

The dedication service included an opening prayer by the Rev. John Hiestand, presentation of colors by Boy Scout Troop #53 of Maytown, comments by Sr.

[continued on page 6]

Elaine Kraus (above) baked this cake which looked just like the new medical center in Marietta!
photo by Tim Swarr

The middle of Fairview Ave. last Monday night:

With snarling chain saws, a repair crew rips into a giant tree that crashed across Fairview Ave. in Marietta last Monday. Winds estimated at 62 miles per hour lashed the river boro, and 1.6 inches of rain fell in a few minutes, turning streets into small rivers.

Story on page 9

Another shut-out

Wet but happy Donegal fans had a lot to cheer about last Friday as the Indians romped to a 43-0 victory over Columbia. It was the third straight shut-out for the Donegal defense. Next week, the small-but-quick Indian defense may face its biggest challenge to date: Solanco's experienced, heavyweight offensive line.
Story on page 8.