

Mrs. Brian E. George

Rachel Brubaker weds Brian George

Rachel A. Brubaker married Brian E. George on September 17th, at 9:30 AM at the Mount Joy Mennonite Church. The Rev. Shelley Shellenberger officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Brubaker, RD1 Mount Joy. She is a 1974 graduate of Donegal High School, and a 1975 graduate of the Lancaster County Practical Nursing Program. She is employed by Landis Homes Retirement Community, Lititz.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William George, RD2 Elizabethtown. He is a 1974 graduate of Lower Dauphin High School, and is employed by Jay Ginder, Contractor, Lawn.

The bride wore a gown of sataglo over rayon crepe. The bodice was adorned with pearled venise lace and featured a sheer yoke and a cameo neck. The sheer Bishop sleeves were dotted with lace motifs and had fitted cuffs trimmed with lace.

The flaired skirt fell from an empire waist and was appliqued with lace. An edging of lace flowed from the skirt onto the chapel length train. Her fingertip length mantilla was edged with venise lace and was held by a Juliet cap covered with lace.

Apricot roses, phalaemopsis orchids, and stephamotis made up her bouquet. Her attendants wore dresses of yellow, pink, blue, and apricot. They carried natural colored baskets filled with daisies, carnations, pompoms, and bachelor buttons.

The maid of honor was Miss Sharon Brubaker, Mount Joy, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Sue Zurin, Mount Joy, Vanessa George, Elizabethtown, sister of the groom, and flower girl was Kimberly Hartzler, Mount Joy.

The best man was Kris Klinger of West Hurley, NY, cousin of the groom. The groomsmen were Kevin Zurin, Mount Joy, and Joe Hoffman, Elizabethtown. Ushers were Dwight Brubaker and Douglas Brubaker of Mount Joy, brothers of the bride.

The organist was Mrs. Bernita Shelly, Mount Joy. Vocalists were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Martin, Leola.

The reception was held in Hostetter's Banquet Hall. After a honeymoon to Florida, the couple will live at RD4 Manheim.

Art Sunday

will promote the arts in our county

An opportunity to get an overview of the many arts programs in our county will be offered on October 9th —Art Sunday.

Ten galleries and museums will take part in the affair.

"This is the first time that community organizations which focus on the fine arts have cooperated in such a program," said Mrs. Henry M. Libhart, director of the program —spearheading Community Art Gallery of Lancaster County.

Mrs. Libhart, a Marietta resident, hopes to make Art Sunday an annual event.

The purpose of Art Sunday, according to Mrs. Libhart, is to focus attention on art in our area. The program's visual smorgasbord will feature works in all mediums by both local and non-area residents.

On Art Sunday, all the galleries will be open free, while museums will charge the regular admission.

The following galleries will participate:

Community Gallery of Lancaster, 13 W. Grant, Lancaster, 12 to 4;

F&M College, 12:30 to 10:00;

Heritage House, Penn Square, 1 to 4;

Lancaster County Art Assoc., 22 E Vine, Lancaster, noon to 4;

Marion Art Gallery, 121 Duke, Lancaster, noon to 4;

Millersville State, 1 to 4;

Tremellen Gallery, 317 E. Grant, Lancaster, 2 to 7;

Rock Ford, Rock Ford Rd., Lancaster, noon to 4;

And Wheatland, 1120 Marietta Ave., Lancaster, 10 to 4.

G.C. Murphy

earnings up

G.C. Murphy Company posted a strong 2nd quarter earnings performance, reflecting a recovery from the disappointing 1st quarter caused by severe weather and flood losses.

Net earnings from operations for the 2nd quarter of 1977 were $1,187,000 or $.30 per share. This is an increase of 52% over the same period in 1976.

G.C. Murphy is a general merchandise retail firm operating Murphy's Marts and conventional G.C. Murphy stores in 24 states, mostly in the East.
