Farm Women meet Herbs are discussed

Farm Women's Society #8 met in the home of Mrs. Kathryn Heisey, where they were treated to a talk on herbs by Mrs. Vera Cox, the Grandview teacher. Mrs. Cox has made a hobby of herbs, doing research on them and knowing many other herb growers.

Mrs. Cox spoke on the various herbs mentioned in the Bible, including aloes, mints, coriander, leeks, and hyssop.

Mrs. Cox has her own garden at home, where she grows many herbs.

After the herb talk, Mrs. Ruth Musser led the group in a hymn sing, and Mrs. Lillian Eby read a fall scripture selection.

During the roll call 25 members and three visitors mentioned their favorite herbs. The minutes were read by secretary Mary Grace Martin. Mrs. Elizabeth Shuman gave the treasurer's report.

The schedule for the near future is: October 6th, sewing at the General Hospital; November 8th, Homemaker's day at the Farm and Home Center, where the Farm Women will have a table of items.

These officers agreed to a new term: Mrs. Warren Heisey, president; Mrs. Paul Erb, vice president; Mary Grace Martin, recording secretary; Mrs. Alice Myers, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Sylvester Shuman, treasurer.

Sympathy is extended by the group to Mrs. Anna Chapman, member, following the death of her husband recently.

The social period was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were provided by hostesses Kathryn Heisey, Kathryn Erb, Lillian Eby, and Elizabeth Witmer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Arline Witman, RD2 Mount Joy, on Oct. 13th at 7:30 PM.

PUFA meets

People United for The Arts (PUFA), a newly formed group of citizens supporting the student arts at Donegal High School, held their regular meeting in the school auditorium September 12 with president Betty Hershey presiding.

Member were entertained by three Donegal dramatics students; Bonnie Wolgemuth, Wayne Mylin and James Landis, performing "Marriage Proposal" by Russian playwright Anton Chekhov.

A committee was formed to assist and support the Donegal Senior Class Play which is slated for production October 14 and 15. Miss Catharine Zeller will direct the play, "Anne of Green Gables."

PUFA plans to support the Veterans' Day Program which will be held the evening of November 11.

Normally this production is held during school hours, but this year the public is invited.

The group decided that the National Gallery and the Smithsonian Institute will be among the scheduled stops for the October trip to Washington, D.C.

PUFA will meet again October 10 in the high school art room at 8 p.m. New members are invited.

Mount Joy Planning Commission

Proposed agenda of next meeting

The proposed agenda of the Mount Joy Planning Commission, to be held on Thursday, Sept. 22, at 7:30 PM in the Borough office, is as follows:

1. Consider the final subdivision plan of Howard Bernhard for Florin Heights, Blocks 'E' and 'F', along Bernhard Ave.;

2. Consider the conditional use request of Harry Snyder for the location of one single-family semi-detached home on Hill St.;

3. Consider the preliminary subdivision plan for Pennsbury Manor located north of Donegal Springs Rd. and west of South Market Avenue.

Mount Joy

commended by Susquehanna

River Basin Commission

The Susquehanna River Basin Commission recently approved groundwater withdrawals in Mount Joy for municipal use.

Commissioner Thomas

Webster complimented the Mount Joy Borough Authority for its initiative in starting a water conservation program without being prodded by an agency or a shortage.
