Marietta Auxilliary to Columbia Hospital meets

Miss Mildred Zink, curator of the herb garden at Donegal Mills Plantation, was guest speaker for the luncheon meeting of the Marietta Branch Auxilliary to the Columbia Hospital held at Lacy's Lounge. Miss Zink mentioned there are three categories of herbs, culinary, medicinal and aromatic.

Included in the kitchen (culinary) types are chives, mints, tarragon, thyme, and oregano. Among medicinal herbs can be found feverfew, hysop and wormwood, while, listed in the aromatic species are Lavendar, Rosmary, etc. Samples of these various plants were displayed by the speaker who also supplied samples to those attending.

Mrs. Joseph Gilmartin, president conducted the business session and extended a greeting, Mrs. Ralph Miller, secretary, presented the year's program and noted the scheduled public card party on Tuesday, October 11, in the Marietta Community House as the first benefit. The event will begin at 8 p.m. and will feature pinocle. Lunch and prizes will be available. Mrs. George Houseal and Mrs. William Heisey are co-chairladies of the party to which the public is invited.

The treasurer's report included the recent contribution to the Columbia Hospital of $1,000 toward the five year pledge of $5,000. The Auxilliary has paid $2,900 of its original pledge.

The October meeting will be held on Monday 10, at the Columbia Hospital where the group will have lunch in the cafeteria at 12:30 p.m. Members and guests are invited.

The December tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Miller on the 12th. Mrs. Joseph Carroll will be hostess for the January 9, meeting. The February 13, meeting will be at the home of Miss Elsie McCloskey. Mrs. William Heisey and Mrs. George Houseal are co-hostesses for the March 13 session and Mrs. Alfred Buell and Mrs. James Baker will be co-hostesses at the April 10 meeting.

Mrs. Herbert Sarver, Mount Joy, R.D. #1 will entertain members at her home on May 8, and the final session of the year will be held in the Board of Directors Room at the Columbia Hospital at 12 noon with a fee of $2.00.
