

All ready for Halloween

Mrs. Schwert's 5th graders at Riverview had a pumpkin contest. The kids were to make their vegetables look like a particular person or an animal. (They also created goblins and clowns from construction paper). One long-necked pumpkin was turned into an elephant! Winners of the contest were Brenda Cover, Doug Bryant, and Danny Deitrich. All pumpkin-makers are shown above.

Farmers First offers prints

The Railroad House as done by Davis Gray

The Railroad house in Marietta is one of eight Lancaster County historical sites chosen by Farmers First Bank for paintings to be offered to their new and steady depositors.

Mrs. Gloria E. Degler, Farmers First Public Relations Officer, announced that artist Davis Gray was commissioned to paint watercolor originals of the Railroad House, Rock Ford, Fulton Opera House, Lititz Railroad Station, a Bareville one-room schoolhouse, a covered bridge near Intercourse, Lititz Springs Park, and Main Street in Ephrata.

The paintings, all with an early 1800's flavor, were created by a process similar to that of Currier & Ives prints. A limited number of copies has been printed.

A complete display of the paintings and details of how they may be obtained are available at Farmers First Bank in Marietta.
