Farm Women meet

Farm Women's Society #8 met in the home of Arline Witman and Mary Sarver, Mt. Joy RD2 on Oct. 13th. Kathryn Heisey, president, was in charge. Ruth Musser led the group in singing several songs. Arline Witman led during devotional time. She read scripture and thoughts concerning seeds being planted in different ways and the evidence of fruit to follow in the lives of each individual.

The special feature of the evening was given by Mrs. Betty Jo Heisey from Penryn. She demonstrated various ways of gift wrapping. She chose simple, inexpensive, original ways to make a package beautiful for different occasions.

Secretary Mary Grace Martin read the minutes of the Sept. meeting. Favorite appliances in the home were named in response to roll call. 22 members and one guest were present.

The treasurer's report was read by Elizabeth Shuman.

Several members joined another group in sewing 122 pieces and mending 21 pieces at the General Hospital on Oct. 6th.

Viola Greider of the Sunshine Committee reported receiving a note of thanks from Anna Chapman for the remembrance given her following the passing of her husband.

Anna Risser, at the Landis Homes, has suffered a fall recently.

A Sunshine Box was presented to a shut-in member, Anna Mae Eby.

Delicious refreshments were presented by hostesses Mary Sarver, Arline Witman, Anna Shank, Belle Garber, and Georgiana Forney.

Delegates going to the County Convention at Harrisburg are Kathryn Heisey, Vera Frey, and Margaret Heisey. Agnes Houseal will go as an alternate.

Nov. 8th is Homemaker's Day at the Farm and Home Center. The next meeting will be held at the home of Alice Myers, Mt. Joy RD1 on Nov. 19th, at 2 PM. There will be an auction of items brought by members.
