Gospel concert at Riverview

A gospel concert, featuring the Nye Family Singers, Messiah's Messengers, and Joyful Noise, will take place on Saturday, October 29th, 7:30 PM, at Riverview Elementary School. The concert is sponsored by Marietta's Pioneer Fire Company #1. Tickets can be purchased from any fireman or at the Blue Note Motor Inn on Rte. 441. For information call 426-1622.

English United Presbyterian Church celebrates 155th anniversary - birthday cake made

The congregation of the English United Presbyterian Church of Marietta celebrated their 155th anniversary last Sunday. The church got its start in a brick building in Gay Street, completed in 1822, at the same time the church was formally organized. This original structure was demolished in 1853. In 1854 the new church went into service. It was remodeled in 1884, and a Sunday school building was added in 1889. A new bell and facing were added in 1909. John Winters, James Duquette, Maryann Spangler and Margaret Wood read the history of the church between hymns. The congregation finished the service by singing "Happy Birthday." Mrs. Robert Henry baked a birthday cake for the church. She and Mrs. Albert Dettinger arranged the observance. The Presbyterians began their services in Marietta in 1814 in the Bell School House.

Chiques Methodist burns mortgage

Chiques United Methodist Church of Mount Joy will celebrate its 18th anniversary and burn the church's mortgage on Nov. 5th and 6th at Indian Springs Golf Course. Guests will include the Rev. and Mrs. Menno E. Good, during whose pastorate the present church was built. Other guests will be the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Whittaker, Rev. and Mrs. William Sharp, and Rev. and Mrs. G. Webster Gotwols, who will make music. Rev. Woodrow Kern is the minister. The mortgage will be burned on the 6th. Rev. Sharp will dedicate the debt-free buildings.

...and they host guest speaker

The Rev. D. Guy Carrigan, Jr., pastor of the Paradise United Methodist Church, will speak on three Sunday evenings (Nov. 6, 13, and 20, at 7:30) at the Chiques United Methodist Church. There will be special music, and the public is cordially invited. Rev. Carrigan was born in New Providence and has a D.M. degree from Drew Theological University. He has served in six pastorates and has worked on camp development.

"God's Special Children"

"God's Special Children" Sunday school class at Calvary Bible Church in Donegal Heights is having a Get-Aquainted Party on Saturday the 29th between 2:00 and 4:00. Any physically handicapped child aged 5 to 12 with abilities through 6th grade is invited. For more information, call Mr. Peters after 5:00 at 653-4981.
