Salute to vets

An evening of reflection; an opportunity to give thanks and pay tribute to those who have served to keep America free; this is what the students of Donegal High School have planned for November 11, 1977, when they will be honoring the men and women of the Armed Forces in their annual Veterans' Day observance.

This year's commemoration will consist of two programs: an assembly on the morning of November 11 for the student body and a full-length performance of patriotic music and drama in the high school auditorium at 7:30 p.m. of the same day. The evening performance is open to the general public and is free of charge to all who attend.

Again this year, the observance will be sponsored and coordinated by the members of the Donegal Dramatics Club, and will involve approximately 200 students in the band, chorus and Dramatics Club. Sets for the program were designed by the Art Majors Club of the high school. Faculty advisors include Mrs. Mary Margaret Peraro, program coordinator; Mr. Glenn Hess; Mrs. RoAnn Lau; Mr. Glenn Leib; and Mrs. Linda Ross.

Special guests for both programs include active military personnel from the five branches of the Armed Services, career veterans from the Donegal community, and representatives of the Donegal area veterans' organizations. Moderator for both performances is James Johnson, President of the Donegal Dramatics Club.

The dramatics portions of the program have been written by members of the Donegal Dramatics Club. This year's program features the play "Life of Honor", penned by Miss Sharon Cox, a Donegal Junior. "Portraits of Courage", a vignette of men and women whose extraordinary courage have inscribed their names in the annals of history, will be depicted by student participants.

Music appropriate for the occasion will be provided by the Donegal Chorus, The Rhythm Singers and the Donegal High School Band. Miss Rebecca Zimmerman, the honor soloist for this year's program, will sing the traditional Veteran's Day rendition of "God Bless America".

Recognition of the 200th anniversary of Washington's winter at Valley Forge will be effected through a re-enactment of the familiar painting "Washington in Prayer".

All members of the community are invited and encouraged to attend the 7:30 p.m. performance on November 11.

E—town College offerings

Elizabethtown College's Campus Theatre is presenting James Thurber's "The Male Animal" Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 3-5, and Wednesday through Saturday, Nov. 9-12.

The play, first produced in 1940 and revived on stage and television in the early 1950's, has a cast of 15 students. Dr. Jack P.

Sederholm, assistant professor and chairman of the Department of Communication Arts, is the director.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. on Nov. 3 and 4 and on Nov. 9-12. It is 6 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 5, because the production is part of festivities marking the inauguration of Dr. Mark C. Ebersole as Elizabeth-town's 11th President.

An ardent fan of Thurber's work, President Ebersole personally chose this play for presentation at this time.

Reservations are necessary and they may be made by calling the Student Activities Office at the College at 367-1151, Ext. 364.

MYAA

to meet

The Marietta Youth Athletic Association will meet on Wednesday, November 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Marietta Community House. All interested persons and members are urged to attend. Election of officers and plans for the coming season will be on the agenda.

La Leche

The E-town/Mount Joy La Leche League will hold its 3rd couples' meeting on Thursday, November 10th at 7:30 PM at the Norlanco Health Center.

You don't have to be a couple to come, everyone is invited.

The topic will be, "The baby arrives; the family and the breast-fed baby."

La Leche began twenty years ago in a Chicago suburb, when one mother who had successfully nursed her baby helped another who wanted to breast-feed. This is still the basic approach, although the League is now international in scope, with more than 3300 groups in 42 countries.

The League manual, The Womanly Art of Breast-feeding, can be bought or loaned from your local chapter. There are also other books of special interest to parents that can be borrowed from the League's lending library.

For more information or counseling please call: Mrs. Deborah Kuntz, 653-8566; Mrs. Jan Hartman, 367-3102; Mrs. Libby Kettering, 653-8591; or Mrs. Elaine Good, 653-1590.

Chiques Co-Ed V-ball scores

The Chiques Co-Ed Volleyball standings as of Oct. 30th are as follows:

Herr's beat Big L 15-13 and 15-13; Fay Sherman's beat Circle Creek 6-15, 15-11, and 15-8; Columbia Hardware beat Donsco 15-13, 13-15, and 15-11.

It was a very exciting match. The best of the games was the 3rd, in which Columbia Hardware came from behind and scored 13 consecutive points to win the game. They were hard fought games.
