

RRTA to help "Toys for Tots"

The Red Rose Transit Authority announces that its public celebration of the Christmas holiday will include participation on the Michael Mann completes 10 years with United Tel.

Michael A. Mann, 112 South 3rd Street, Columbia, has recently observed his 10th year of service with The United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

Mann joined the telephone company in 1967 as a lineman and was appointed frameman in 1972. In 1973 he was named installer-repairman, the position he now holds.

Mann has attended various company sponsored technical training courses.

He and his wife, the former Peggy Ann Harbold, have two children; Heather Lynn and George Michael.

Included among his hobbies are sports.

Blue is best for cars

The most popular new car color in Pennsylvania last year was blue, according to the Inmont Corporation, a leading supplier of paints to the automotive industry.

Pennsylvania ranked sixth in the nation with a total of 558,746 new car registrations, over one-fourth of which were blue. The second most popular color was white or cream.

More than 678,700 workers are employed in automotive-related industry in Pennsylvania. This is approximately 17.8 per cent of the state's total employment, Inmont said.

Free Turkeys

at Maytown Civic Assoc. card party

Turkeys will be given as prizes at the Maytown Civic Association's pinocle party next Friday evening (Nov. 4) at the township municipal building. If you're a good card player, this is your chance to get a free turkey.

School Night of Scouting

"School Night of Scouting" was held at Seiler School. Cubmaster Robert Mark gave a report on the duties of a cubmaster, and Gerald Alleman gave a report on the Cub Scout Program. J.L. Oxford spoke on the duties of a committee chairman, and John Auker reported on the duties of an assistant Cub Master and Webelos leader.

Tina Biesecker spoke on being a den mother, Thomas Smith on the duties of an assistant Webelos leader. Five new cubs were signed up: Duane Koser, Eric and Jerome Lutz, James Shewbridge, Benjamin Kling, and assistant den mother Terry Smith.

I.U. 13 honored

The Pennsylvania School Boards Association has announced that Lancaster-Lebanon IU 13 has received Honorable Mention for two publications: "Intermedia" and "Basic Education/Reading & ESL Teacher's Manual."

annual Toys for Tots program. Sponsored by the Lancaster Boys Club, the Toys for Tots program provides toys for less fortunate children.

This RRTA project will begin on Monday, October 31, and will run through Saturday, November 26. Anyone making a donation of a toy or a game upon boarding an RRTA bus will be given a 45 cent discount on his fare. (The base fare on RRTA buses is 45 cents.) The 45 cent discount will be offered on all RRTA bus routes at any time during this period. Items donated should be small and in good condition.

This is the second year that RRTA has worked with the Lancaster Boys Club on this program.

Toys and games will also be collected by RRTA at its general office, located on the second floor of 825 East Chestnut Street, Lancaster.
