

Anne of Green Gables

Cold sister, warm brother, girl are characters in DHS performance

"The dearest and most moving and delightful girl since the immortal Alice" (that's Mark Twain's description) will be one of the characters in Anne of Green Gables, performed for you by the DHS senior class on Friday and Saturday, November 18th and 19th at 8:00 PM in the school auditorium.

The play is based on L. M. Montgomery's novel. The comedy is about a loveable brother and his stern sister, who has never been known to thaw out. Little does anyone know that beneath her frigid exterior lurks a warm and tender heart, however. Their names are Matthew and Marilla.

A rattlebrained friend suggests they adopt an orphan to help with the farm chores, Matthew unsuspectingly drives to the station to pick up his new charge, and finds that a girl, Anne, has been sent by mistake! Being a soft touch, he takes her back to Green Gables, the family spread.

The plot thickens: Anne's vivid imagination leads to both humor and tragedy, but by the end of the play, Anne's unquenchable enthusiasm, charitable viewpoint, and refreshing simplicity have won the hearts of all, even the frigid Marilla.

Margaret Endslow will finish the play on an upbeat note in the title role. The loveable bother and stern sister are Allison Hawthorne and Kevin McKain.

The supporting cast includes Kathi Shelley,

Tammy Portner, Patricia Sheetz, Donna Germer, Sherri Good, Tina Fitzkee, Jolene Lindemuth, Eileen Penyak, Bruce Eyer, James Johnson, and Joseph Coover.

Miss Catherine Zeller, head of the English Department, is the director. Ken Depoe, head of the Industrial Arts Department, is supervising set construction.

Committee chairpeople are: prompters Tammy Duke and Heidi Weidner; technical aspects Rick Kinsey; artist Rebecca Ruhl; publicity, Wendy Newcomer; tickets, Denise Grimm and Carol Nolt; properties, Beth Kline; costumes, Tammy Duke and Brenda Gibble; make-up, Deidri Hummel; and usher, Joi Shearer.
