

If you think you are a poet,
Here's your great big chance to show it!

A $1000 grand prize will be awarded in the poetry competition sponsored by the World of Poetry, a monthly newsletter for poets.

Poems of all styles, on any subject, are eligible. Besides the grand prize, there are 49 other prizes. The contest director says, "We expect our contest to produce exciting discoveries."

Rules and entry forms are available from World of Poetry, 2431 Stockton Blvd. Dept. A, Sacramento, CA 95817.

So if you decide to write, Who Knows! you may get a bite!

Home of the month

Mrs. Zuch's log cabin wins

Mrs. Lucy Zuch got the Home of the Month award from the Marietta Restoration Associates for her house at 200 E. Market Street, Marietta. Mrs. Robert Spangler presented the award.

Mrs. Zuch's house is an authentic log cabin, built in the early 1800's. Its logs are covered by clapboard. There are two fireplaces and a bake oven, and a curved stairway.

Mrs. Zuch's grandparents bought the house in 1850. She and her husband moved into the building when they were married 63 years ago. Lucy and Harry Zuch had three children; Frank, (Rev.) Robert, and Charles.

The property is 90 by 200 feet, along Evans Run.

Ken Ross has prepared a slide show for the next meeting of the Restoration Associates on Thursday, November 17th, at 8 PM in the Marietta Community House. The public is invited.
