Klugh makes All-Stars

Henry Klugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klugh of 322 N. Market Ave., Mount Joy, has been selected by the L-L soccer coaches for the All-Star soccer team.

In addition to leading the Donegal Indians in goals booted (17 overall, 11 league), Henry was elected one of the tri-captains by his team-mates.

Houseal wins trophy

Randy Houseal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Houseal of 26 S. Queen St., Maytown, was presented with the John S. Slaymaker Soccer Memorial Trophy at a recent high school assembly by the varsity soccer team. He got it for displaying the highest qualities of good sportsmanship, team spirit, moral leadership, and devotion to his team and school.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smeal (Deborah Culp), 111 S. River St., Maytown, a son at Osteopathic Hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Demetrius Lopez (Linda Getz), 32 W. Market, Marietta, a daughter at General Hospital, Friday.

Deer threatened

The game commission is hoping that deer hunters will kill at least 114,000 deer this year. If the number falls much short of that figure, deer may starve to death this winter. Last year hunters shot about 122,000 deer. Right now there are about 650,000 deer in the state.

License that hound

"The best insurance for a valuable dog is a PA dog license," says State Ag secretary Kent Shelhamer.

Hunting with an unlicensed dog is illegal, and the license helps hundreds of hunters retrieve their lost canines every year. You can buy one at Sell's barber shop in Marietta or Sipling's Pet Shop in Mount Joy.
