Obituaries

DELLA W. EBERSOLE

Mrs. Della W. Ebersole, 91, of 1520 Harrisburg Pike, Lancaster, died at the Oreville Mennonite Home on Sunday. She formerly lived in Mount Joy, and was the widow of the late Martin H. Ebersole, who died in 1974.

She was a daughter of the late Reuben and Annie Wolgemuth Nissley. She was a member of the Erisman Mennonite Church of Manheim.

Surviving are: a daughter Anna, wife of Lester Hollinger, East Petersburg; a stepson, Jacob W. Ebersole of Mount Joy; a step-daughter, Esther W. Ebersole of Salunga; three grandchildren; 8 great grandchildren; and a brother, Amos Nissley, of Orange, CA.

KATHRYN E. SCHATZ

Mrs. Kathryn E. Schatz, 68, of 131 New Haven Street, Mount Joy, died Thursday at 7:20 AM at Lancaster General Hospital, where she had been a patient for four weeks.

Born in Hanover, she was a daughter of Maggie Wildasin and the late Harry W. Wagner. Her husband, Harold F. Schatz, SR., died in 1969.

A Mount Joy resident for most of her life, she was a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, and the Mount Joy Leisure Club.

In addition to her mother and stepfather, Luther Wilt, both of Mount Joy, she is survived by five sons and daughters: Harold F., Jr., Mount Joy; Robert E. and Richard C., both of Mount Joy RD2; Thomas F., Manheim; and Dorothy G., wife of Elwood C. Flowers, Manheim RD2. Also surviving are 17 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Four brothers and three

CHARLES BENEDICT

Charles J. Benedict, 89, of 28 W. Walnut Street, Marietta, died Saturday at the Columbia Hospital after an illness of two years.

Born in Philadelphia, a son of the late Jacob and Mary Dougherty Benedict, he was the husband of Blanche M. Schaub Benedict. He retired with honors in 1955 from his job as a conductor with the Penn Central Railroad after 47 years with the line.

He was a member of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary RC Church, Marietta, the Central Association of Miraculous Medal of the Roman Catholic Church, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and the Pioneer Fire Company.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Gladys Chaney, at home, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Shaw of Philadelphia.

FLORENCE LOWERY

Florence Collins Lowery of 580 W. Main St., Mount Joy, died Friday morning at St. Joseph Hospital after an illness of six months. She was 69.

She lived all her life in the Mount Joy area. She was the daughter of the late Samuel and Elizabeth Helfrich Collins and the wife of E.V. "Larry" Lowery.

She had retired from the Gerberich-Payne shoe company in 1956, and for ten years ran the Lowery Antique business.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by nieces and nephews.

Barbara Thome Bagri at E-town College

Barbara Thome Bagri, the Mount Joy singer performed at Elizabethtown College on Monday, November 14th. The concert was open to the public without charge.

Ms. Bagri has starred in Lancaster Opera Workshop productions, the Green Room, the York Little Theater, and other local theaters. She was a member of the Los Angeles Oratorio Society, the Camerata Singers of Pocatello, Idaho, and has worked for the Idaho State Symphony, the Mount Gretna Theater, the Baden Stattheater in Austria, the Weiner Kammeroper in Austria, the Barga Summer festival in Italy, and numerous concert halls in this country and abroad.

A teacher herself, she has studied voice with many singers.

Ms. Bagri, incidentally, plays piano, organ, and cello.

Her accompanist was Debra Ronning, a teacher of music with a Master's in piano. Ms. Ronning has worked with Lancaster Opera Workshop, and was choir director for Zion Evangelical Church, and was accompanist for the Fulton Children's Theater.
