Donald King joins Keller staff

Harold Keller, the relator/auctioneer who recently moved his office to 38 W. Main Street in Mount Joy, announced the appointment of Donald King as a realtor associate last week.

Don King is a licensed real estate broker and has sold property in Bucks County since 1969. He will be involved in building, development, and residential sales.

Don's training was completed at the Bucks County Community College and the PA Association of Realtor courses. He is a GRI (graduate of Realtors Institute).

A member of the National Association of Realtors, the Pennsylvania Association of Realtors, and the Bucks County Board of Realtors, and now a Realtor Associate, Don is also a Realtor Associate of the Greater Lancaster Board. He presently serves as president of the Realtor-Associate Division of Bucks County Board. Don recently completed a two day orientation course given by the Lancaster Board.

Langhorne Rod and Gun Club, the Manheim Sportsmans Association, Inc., the National Rifle Association, and the Amateur Trapshooting Association of America are some of Mr. King's affiliations.

Don lives with his wife Jean and daughters Karen and Kelli in Lancaster County. Karen and Kelli attend Donegal Schools.

Boats can tip

The game commission warns you to be careful while hunting in boats this season. While shootings are more dramatic, boating deaths are actually more numerous in connection with hunting.

Many small boats designed for hunting can carry 500 lbs., which is less than the weight of two hunters with guns, equipment, and dogs.

Besides drowning, hypothermia kills many people. Cold water will kill you in minutes. To be safe and legal, always wear a flotation vest.

It's easier to get where you're going with a Statement Savings account from National Central.

It's easier in several ways. Your savings grow quickly because Statement Savings pays a full 5% annual interest, compounded continuously every day your money is in the bank.

It's more convenient than a passbook account. With Statement Savings you don't need to remember to bring your passbook with you whenever you want to make a deposit or withdrawal. You don't have to worry about a passbook getting lost or stolen.

No passbook, no problem.

You get an easy-to-read regular statement that lists all your deposits, withdrawals and interest. And Banking-By-Telephone makes almost every transaction simpler. Just call to transfer money between your Statement Savings and checking accounts. Or to pay your National Central mortgage, Master Charge, installment loan or Simple Interest loan. And all Banking-By-Telephone activity is reported on a regular statement.

So make it easier to get where you're going with a National Central Statement Savings account.
