

Obituaries

MYRTLE MOWRER

Myrtle W. Mowrer, 71, of Marietta, died last week at Lancaster General hospital after an illness of several months.

She was the wife of Milton H. Mowrer.

Born in Mount Joy, she lived for the last 31 years in Marietta. She was a member of the Mount Joy Church of God and the Marietta Senior Citizens' Club.

Besides her husband, she is survived by four sons: Lloyd W. of Middletown, Donald W. of Lancaster, Milton H., Jr., of Fredericksburg, and Robert W. of Marietta RD1; a daughter, Marian W., wife of Andrew Spinks of Columbus, GA; three grandchildren; and three brothers: George McNamee of Chester, Charles McNamee of Pomeroy, and Howard McNamee of Chester County.

IRA K. HUBER

Ira K. Huber, 75, of Waynesboro Road, Mount Joy RD2, died unexpectedly last week at his home.

He was a son of the late Maris and Emma Kreider Huber and the husband of Blanche Warner Huber.

Born in Strasburg Township, he had been a resident of Mount Joy for the last 40 years. He worked for the General Cigar Co. of Lancaster for 47 years.

He was East Donegal tax collector for 16 years, and had been Republican committeeman for the Springville district for 10 years.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Edna K. Bushong of Lititz; and a step-sister Myrtle, wife of Charles Blottenberger, Berwyn.

EDNA M. GUHL

Mrs. Edna M. Guhl, of 90 E. Main Street, Mount Joy, died unexpectedly at the home of her nephew, Richard Weidman, last Saturday. She was 84.

A former special education teacher, retired from her position at Donegal High in 1970. Wanting to keep on working, she then taught for six more years at St. Anne's Elementary School.

She was born in Wilmington, Del., she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Barton M. Barr. She was the widow of Phares Guhl, who died in 1945.

She received her teaching degree from Millersville State and later went on to other schools for her Master of Arts degree.

She was a member of the St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Mount Joy, the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Association, and the Retired Teacher's Association.

She is survived by a nephew.

It's nice to know you have money in reserve
when something special comes along.

With just one application, you can have a line of credit at National Central Bank that gives you four different ways of getting extra money when you really need it.

Worry Free checking automatically covers you in case you accidentally write a check for more than you have in your account. With Master Charge, you can charge your purchases or get a cash advance at any National Central office. And Money Checks let you write yourself a loan whenever you need it—just write a Money Check instead of a regular check.

That's four ways to use one line of credit—a line you can apply to have increased any time you want. And Banking-By-Telephone makes repayment as convenient as possible. Just call to pay your National Central line of credit, mortgage, installment loan or Simple Interest loan. And you can transfer money between your Statement Savings and checking accounts with a telephone call. And all Banking-By-Telephone activity is reported on a regular statement.

Apply for your line of credit at National Central Bank. Then you'll know you have the money when something special comes along.

NATIONAL CENTRAL BANK

Member FDIC/Federal Reserve System

