Joyceettes meet

—plan Santa's breakfast, bake sale and craft classes

The Mount Joy Joyceettes held their November meeting at the Borough Hall with president Sandy Meckley presiding.

The Joyceettes' new and largest holiday event ever, Breakfast with Santa, will be held on December 10th at Hostetter's Dining Hall. Tickets can be bought by calling Kathy Bower at 653-4460.

Several other holiday projects were on the agenda also. Final preparations were made for the December 9th Christmas bake sale (which replaces the cookie sale previously scheduled), and, once again, the club will be assisting the Joyceettes with "Santa Photo" to begin December 10th at Hostetter's Hardware.

The Joyceettes have planned a cooky exchange and Christmas craft classes for the members.

Dues were collected, 30 membership cards were given out, and vice-president Donna Wetzel presented a yearbook to all attending members. The club sustains 3 social memberships.

Patsy Hoffer announced at the meeting that the 25th Joyceette anniversary cookbooks should arrive any day.

Membership chairwoman Joanne Fry will host a membership tea at her home on January 11th.

The Jaycee D.S.A. banquet is scheduled for January 21st. A committee is preparing a nomination for the D.S.A. award. The "Woman of the Year" award, sponsored by the club, will be presented at the D.S.A. banquet. Chairwoman Deb Newcomer is accepting nominations from local clubs for the Woman of the Year.

January 1st is the deadline for entries.

The December meeting will be held in Donna Wetzel's home. A special Christmas evening is planned.
