LETTER OF THANKS

Our deepest appreciation and sincere thanks are extended to the Marietta Ambulance Association Crew and our Police Department, on Sunday, 30 Oct. '77. Little do we realize what this great association really means to each and every one of us and our community until we are met with some great misfortune. With the promptness and skilled training of these young people, we owe my mother's life. May God Bless each and every one of these wonderful people, sent to us by God, and pray that we can continue on with this much needed Association.

Our Sincere Thanks,
 Ruth & Franklin Sharp

Lots of winners in mystery photo contest

Well, someone finally got it. As a matter of fact, many people got it, correctly guessing that the subject of the Mystery Photo is the surface of a burl-wood coffee table at The Leather Attic in Park City.

Last week we promised Susquehanna Magazine subscriptions to the first three people who got it right. The grand winners are: Kim Laughlin, Rd1, Sharon Drive, Mount Joy; Joette Keller, 268 Marietta Ave., Mount Joy; and Steve Eno, RD1 Marietta.

As for the rest of the people who correctly identified the object in their phone calls or cards, well... there were so many, that the editor went in the corner and wept at the thought of all those people who took the time to find the answer going without a subscription this Christmas.

The publisher, seeing the editor so distraught, was overcome with Christmas Spirit.

"There, there," the publisher said consolingly to the editor, "Don't cry. We'll give everyone a subscription!"

And so, everyone was happy, even though the publisher decided that it wouldn't be fair to the three winners to give full year subscriptions to all, but that the runners up would get 6 month subs.

Those who will get the 6 month subscriptions are: Amos Lichty, Alma Nissley, Amelia Gorman, Jessie Oberdorff, Tom and/or Gary Youndt, Carl Heilmann, Jody Bass & Pat Flowers, Kathy Bradley, Mrs. Ivan Hess, Penny Woods, Jeanette Hayman, S.C. Beyen, Scott Brightbill (who wrote on his postcard, "P.S. The suspense is almost unbearable?"), Sarah Heckert, and Kenneth Musser.

DID YOU HEAR?

Sharon Zimmerman was oboe soloist last Sunday with the E-town college Concert Choir.

FOUND: Beautiful, gentle female doberman pinscher dog in the Mount Joy area. Call 653-2239.

NOTICE

Anyone who would like prints from the Alumni Basketball Game played on November 26, please contact Corky Flick at 653-2206. Also, anyone who would like photos taken at any future basketball game or wrestling match, etc., please leave your name, phone, date and place at the the above number.

Despite our extra clues of last week, some people, a minority, still didn't get it. Some wrong guesses were: "A vulture," "A fossil creature that lived millions of years ago on the Earth," "an upside down picture of people walking," and the Park City fountain.

The Susquehanna Times, in all future Mystery Photo prize contests, will accept ONLY postcards for replies. We accepted phone calls this time because we hadn't stated our policy, except in the first Mystery Photo article.

Two people who phoned in correct answers before we changed the rules to let all correct answers win, were told that they were too late to win. (We had been up all night straightening magazine copy to meet a printing deadline, which explains this grumpy response on our part.) If those folks will call us back and leave their names, we'll send booby prizes to them, too.

Many thanks to all for your mental efforts.
