250,000 birds for Tamaqua

Plain & Fancy expansion

Plain and Fancy Egg Ranch of E-town recently broke ground for a new plant in Tamaqua. "It's the only kind of breakage I know of that increases production," vice-president Paul Hess, Jr., cracked.

The new plant will be called Plain and Fancy Farms. The first phase calls for installation of a 50,000-bird complex. Eventually 250,000 birds will be laying there. The processing plant will handle 180,000 dozens of eggs every week.

Present at the ground breakage were: Bill Wenrich, job coordinator of Ebersole Construction; Paul Hess, Jr.; Paul Hess, Sr., president of Plain and Fancy; Jay Habecker, general manager of Plain and Fancy; and John Ebersole, owner of Ebersole Construction.

Jaycee Week

The Mount Joy Jaycees will observe National Jaycee Week during the week of January 15-21, 1978. The finale of this week-long observation will be the distinguished service award banquet, at which time a local young man will be recognized for his services to the community and his personal development, with particular emphasis on the year 1977.

The Jaycees want the people of Mount Joy to make nominations for this award. Do you know a young man whom you think deserves this honor? If so, make a nomination to Robert Stoner, 25 N. Barbara St., Mount Joy, phone 653-4395.

All recommendations should be received no later than January 4th.

Free entertainment

Elizabethtown College is offering you some free entertainment for the holidays. Tomorrow night at 8:00, in the E-town Church of the Brethren, the college will sponsor that old favorite, Agamemnon, performed in an unusual manner by Peter Anott's marionettes. Arnott will single-handedly manipulate the puppets, speak their parts, control the lighting, and translates an occasional Greek word for the audience.

This production will be close in spirit to the original production, which had all the actors masked.

On Sunday, December 11th, a program of Christmas music will be presented in the E-town Area High auditorium, at 3 PM. It will feature the Choral Union, the Brass Ensemble, the Concert Choir, and the Concert Band. The Band (with Don Witman as a trumpet soloist) will do Vivaldi's Concerto in D flat among other things.
