Trinity Lutheran plans 150th anniversary celebration

Trinity Lutheran Church of Mount Joy is about to celebrate their 150th anniversary, and they're inviting you.

It all goes back to December 15th, 1827. On that day, in an old school which stood on the corner of Barbara and Columbia streets, they started the congregation. The school served as their church for several years. Since then the Trinity congregation has moved on, and currently worship in their fourth sanctuary (dedicated in 1970).

The current pastor, David Klepper, is the 28th pastor in the history of the church. Rev. W. Lester Koder is pastor emeritus. Two events are planned.

On December 11th, after the Mount Joy Community Chorus Christmas concert, an open house will be held; and on Thursday the 15th a special service will be held at 7:30 PM. The guest speaker will be Rev. Dr. Howard McCaerney, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church in America.

Holiday food bazaar at St. Luke's

The Episcopal Women of St. Luke's Episcopal Church will sponsor a Holiday Food Bazaar on Saturday, December 10th, from 9 AM to noon. Home baked food items will highlight the bazaar. Cranberry relish, home baked bread, pies, cakes, jellies, preserves, candy, traditional Christmas cookies, Christmas tree ornaments, and other crafts will be featured.

Vote for favorite bus driver

Who's your favorite RRTA bus driver? If you live in Mount Joy, you don't have one; if you live in Marietta your selection is limited. However, you can vote for your favorite RRTA bus driver just the same. The RRTA is holding a contest. The most popular bus driver will get a $100 savings bond, and three of the voters, drawn at random by used ballots, will get $25 savings bonds. Ballots can be obtained on any RRTA bus. They are easy to fill out, asking for your favorite driver and why you like him, your name, address, and telephone number.
