Marietta Golden Age Club holds Christmas party

The Maytown Golden Age Club held its annual Christmas party at the Copper Luster Inn on December 13th. About 60 club members and guests attended the affair.

President Anna Houseal extended greetings to all. The invocation was offered by Rev. Ed Rosenberry, pastor of the Church of God, Maytown.

Entertainment was also provided by Rev. Rosenberry and his wife, who sang several carols together. Rod Hershey of Mount Joy presented his slide show entitled "Something Beautiful." Ivan Hess won the door prize.

The evening was completed by a social hour and a gift exchange.

Donald Betty

Don Betty moving to England

Donald Betty, of RD1 Mount Joy, will be moving to England on March 1st.

Betty, who until recently was plant manager of the Marietta Armstrong Co. ceiling plant, has been made plant manager of a new Armstrong plant in Teesside, northeast England.

Mr. Betty joined Armstrong in 1950, after serving in the Army and getting a degree in mechanical engineering from Bucknell. He was at first a project engineer, then plant engineer for the research and development organization. In 1963 he came to the Lancaster floor plant. In 1966 he was named assistant plant manager at a plant in New Jersey, and became the Marietta plant manager in 1968 when construction began here.

Mr. Betty has been active in community affairs during his years here. He has been vice chairman of the East Donegal Planning Commission, president of the board of trustees of the Donegal Presbyterian Church, a member of the church's organizations (Men's Association, Donegal Society), and has been active in the Boy Scouts and United Way.

Farm Women hold Christmas party

by Pauline Miller
Farm Women's Society #8 met in the home of Mrs. Vera Frey, Marietta R.D., Saturday December 10 at 6:30 P.M. This was their annual Christmas party. Mrs. Kathryn Heisey, President of the Society, was in charge of the program. There were twenty-four members and nineteen visitors present.

The special feature for the evening was a talk given by Mr. Chas. Rentzell, Bainbridge R.D. He is employed at the Three Mile Island.

Several games were played and some of the traditional Christmas carols were sung, led by Mrs. Ruth Musser.

Every one enjoyed food prepared and served by hostesses Vera Frey, Agnes Houseal, Margaret Heisey and Anna Keener. Members also supplied a variety of foods.

There will be no January meeting as this is the time for the State Convention.

The next meeting will be held at the Cross Roads Church (Brethren in Christ) Mount Joy on February 18 at 2 P.M. Mr. George Endslo will show slides at this time.

Send smiles over the miles...
