

A visit from the mayor of Clearfield

Among the people who came to Harold Ney's farm last week for Bob Walker's visit was his wife Gladys' uncle, Harry . Blessing. Harry, 81 years old, is the mayor of Clearfield, but has only lived there for 18 years. He is a native of Maytown.

Get into inventory control

Are you interested in Inventory and Control? The Central Pennsylvania chapter of the American Production and Inventory Control Society is sponsoring a course on the fundamentals of production inventory and control at Capitol Campus, according to Ron Melchiorre, area director for continuing education.

For more information, call 787-7753. The course starts January 11th.

Bruce Neyer participates in college shows

Bruce Neyer of Mount Joy, a student at Bob Jones university, participated in three performances of the Christmas program there, which was attended by more than 7000 people.

Bruce, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Neyer of 306 Birchland Ave., is a sophomore majoring in music at Bob Jones U.

Bob Jones U. describes itself as "the world's most unusual university."

Risk factor screening

A risk factor screening is to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 28th from 1 to 7 PM at the Manheim Twp. Ambulance Assoc. building on Municipal Drive off the Oregon Pike.

Risk factor screening is an ordinary medical checkup plus glucose and cholesterol blood counts and a modified EKG test. It will tell you if you are in danger from heart disease and other ailments.

The cost is $2.00. Make an appointment by calling the Heart Office between 9 and 4 weekdays.

Free locks for elderly

Keyless locks are still available free to senior citizens, but hurry, the supply is limited! If you can't get into Lancaster easily, call the Schock Senior Center, 653-8585.
