

Community Friends collect groceries for needy with Marietta Jaycees

The Marietta Jaycees distributed 11 boxes of groceries and 14 fruit baskets to needy and shut-in persons last week. The Jaycees did this in conjunction with the Marietta Community Friends, a volunteer organization that does public service work around Christmas time.

Money for the gift groceries came from local churches and civic groups.

Working through the Community Friends, such groups avoid duplication of effort during the holidays.

The grocery boxes were packed at Zion Lutheran Church. Each contained a turkey, potatoes, pan cake mix, bread, margarine, noodles, onions, cereal, milk, peas, corn, jello, apple butter, sugar, and fruit.

Mrs. James R. Baker is the president of the Friends, and Albert Dettinger is secretary-treasurer.

Friendly visitors

The Friendly Visitor Program of the Office of Aging is in desperate need of volunteers to be trained for the following areas of Lancaster County: Bainbridge RD1; Mount Joy boro and RD2; Columbia; and Silver Springs.

If you are interested in working with people 60 and older, and are willing to make only a one hour per week commitment, contact Mrs. Jacquie Burton at 299-7984.

Jobs for senior citizens

Attention senior citizens: The Office of Aging is still interviewing senior job applicants under the Senior Employment Program. Interviews will be conducted at the Office of Aging, 50 No. Duke St., Lancaster, as of January 3rd. (The interviews are now held at 225 N. Lime St.)

Interview hours are 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM every Tuesday. For more information, call 299-7979.

Mr. and Mrs. David Brodhecker

Lou Ann Hess marries David Lee Brodhecker

The marriage of Miss Lou Ann Hess to David Lee Brodhecker took place on Friday evening, December 23rd by candlelight, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Maytown. The Rev. David Klepper of Mount Joy officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hess, Maytown. She graduated from Donegal High School and the Empire Beauty School and now operates her own salon in Marietta.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Brodhecker, of 114 Clover Heights Road, Lancaster. He graduated from Conestoga Valley High School. He attends Millersville State College and is now associated with Arby's Inc. at Park City.

The couple will reside in Maytown.
