A new pastor at Donegal Presbyterian

the Rev. Victor Baer

The Rev. Victor Baer, D.D., has been elected to fill the pulpit of Donegal Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Baer, a native of Lancaster County, is now the Associate Minister of Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City. He will begin at Donegal on February 1st. The Presbytery will hold a reception on January 17th. Installation is slated for February 26th.

Dr. Baer was unanimously elected to the Donegal Church pulpit at a special congregational meeting last Sunday (Jan. 8). The Donegal pulpit has been filled by the Rev. Norman Dunsmore, Mount Joy.

Born in Landisville, Dr. Baer graduated from John B. Stetson University in Florida with an A.B. degree, from Princeton and Union Theological Seminaries.

His student pastorate was in Calvary Presbyterian Church, York. He was ordained in Cincinnati, Ohio, and served four years as Assistant Pastor of Kennedy Heights Church there. He was called as Assistant Pastor of Madison Avenue Church in New York in 1951, became Co-Pastor in 1953, and remained there until called as Pastor of First Church at Ossining, N.Y., in 1959. He became Assistant Pastor of Brick Church on Park Avenue in New York in 1971, and has served as Associate Pastor since 1974. He has been listed in "Who's Who in the East" since 1966.

Dr. Baer's pastoral experience has included organizing a new congregation, with 12 members, in Cincinnati. (It is still going strong). He and his wife, Molly, paid their own expenses as volunteers for the Board of Missions during two 6-week periods in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky (at the Canada and McVey churches near Pikeville) and Eastern Colorado (at the Crook and Sedgwick churches near Sterling). He served for a year just after World War II in London, organizing youth clubs in the slums, and surveying bombed-out areas for the Presbytery of London to determine where churches should be rebuilt. He also studied at King's College, University of London. His service in mission outreach resulted in the awarding of an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree by Pikeville College, Pikeville, Kentucky, in 1962, and is a member of the college board of trustees. He was invited to join Chi Alpha (honorary ministerial fraternity) in 1971. Across the years he has followed a systematic program of continuing education, including seminars in Finland and the Iona Community in Scotland. He is a Rotarian and has been active in community activities. Dr. Baer served as Moderator of Hudson River Presbytery in New York, and spent a year as an exchange minister in Leeds, England.

His wife, Mary Louise (Molly) Koch Baer, was born in Washington, D.C. and lived for some years in the Pottsville and Philadelphia areas. She graduated from Vassar College in 1945 with a B.A. degree, majoring in child study. A kindergarten teacher for eight years in Bryn Mawr, she became director of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church Day School in 1954, serving two years. Her volunteer work has included serving as president and member of the board of directors of Ossining (N.Y.) Children's Center, member of the Junior League of Westchester-on-Hudson, member of the Community Action Board of Ossining, Ossining Historical Society board, and Vice President of Ossining Women's Club. At the Ossining church she sang in the choir, taught in the Sunday School, and helped develop a church library. She was on the nominating committee of the Hudson River Presbytery, and served as religious education consultant for Presbytery and Presbyterial. The Baers have no children.

In New York City, Molly has been a board member of James Lenox House, a senior residence in Manhattan; House of the Holy Comforter, a nursing home in the Bronx; and Interfaith Neighbors, a teen-age center in Manhattan. She has been vice president of the Vassar Club of New York. At Brick Church, she has served on the Sunday School committee and the Library committee, and as a substitute teacher in the Brick Church Day School.
