

James Buller is king; Kristen Landers is Queen

The runners-up, King, Queen, and their mothers pose in regal splendor. Starting from the left: 2nd runner-up Robert Myers and his mother, Mrs. Robert Myers; 1st runner-up Scott Bixler and Mrs. Barry Bixler; James Buller and Patricia Buller;

Kristen Landers and Mrs. James Landers; Jody Weaver and Mrs. Marvin Weaver; and 2nd runner-up Stephanie Stoner, and her mother Mrs. Robert Stoner.

The 1978 Mount Joy Sweetheart King and Queen were crowned last Saturday at Trinity Lutheran in Mount Joy. James Buller is the King, and Kristen Landers is the Queen. Each received a $25 savings bond and flowers, compliments of the Joycee

-ettes, who sponsored the event.

Mrs. Nettie Germer, the Donegal School Nurse, also got some money— $415, for the use of the Donegal Dental Clinic. Mrs. Germer appeared very pleased to receive the donation, which will help children keep their teeth healthy.

The $415 was raised by the penny voting for the contest candidates.

The king, James Buller, is the son of Patricia Buller, 560 W. Main St., Mount Joy. The Queen, Kristen Landers, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Their Highnesses, the Sweetheart King and Queen: left, James Buller; right, Kristen Landers. The Queen broke down in tears of emotion when first crowned, but had recovered by the time the picture was snapped.

Nettie Germer, Donegal School nurse, is handed a check for $415 dollars by Joycee-ettes president Sandy Meckley. Money will go to Donegal Dental Clinic.

James Landers, 874 Farmdale Road, Mount Joy.

Runners-up to the King were: 1st, Scott Bixler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Bixler, 215 Marietta Ave., Mount Joy; 2nd, Robert Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers, 411 N. Plum St., Mount Joy.

Runners-up to the Queen were: Jody Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Weaver, RD2, Mount Joy; 2nd, Stephanie Stoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stoner, 25 N. Barbara St., Mount Joy.

The runners-up got gifts. The 30-contestant event was chaired by JoAnn Frymoyer and Sue Thomas, assisted by Vickie Brown and Cindy Stoner.

The Joycee-ettes wish to extend their appreciation to the candidates, their parents, participating businesses, and all who helped make the project a success.