PUFA honors teachers

More than 100 people attended a PUFA banquet last Sunday night at the Mount Joy Legion, which honored seven Donegal High teachers who have encouraged art at DHS. Each honored teacher received a plaque.

The teachers honored were: Miss Catherine Zeller, Mary-Margaret Peraro, and Glen Hess (for stage productions); Glen Leib (band director); Mrs. RoAnn Lau (vocal director); Mrs. Linda Ross (art teacher); and Mr. Ken Depoe (shop instructor).

Plaques were presented to each by PUFA president Mrs. Amos Hershey.

Rev. Kenneth Brubaker offered the invocation, and Gary Graybill was M.C.

Mrs. Hershey introduced the board of directors of PUFA: Ken Ross, Mrs. Ralph Youtz, Margaret Landis, Mrs. James Johnson, Mrs. Martin Witman, Mrs. Ronald Hawthorne, and Ralph Youtz.

A play, Anton Chekhov's comedy A Marriage Proposal, was put on by DHS Dramatic Club members Bonnie Wolgemuth, James Landis, and Wayne Mylin. The Rhythm Singers sang, and Ken McCoy, Keith Smith, and Kevin McKain played music as a trio.

The banquet was coordinated by Mrs. William Emenheiser and Mrs. William Landis.

Weatherman Strohm

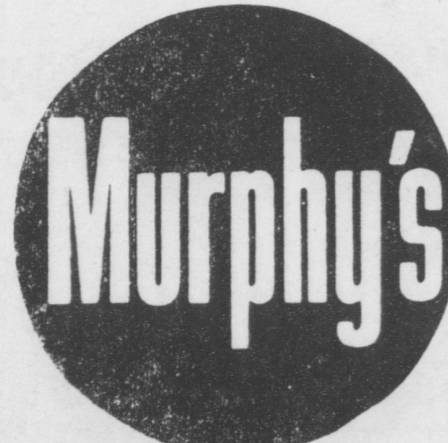

G. Daniel Strohm, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Penwell, of 120 E. Hazel in Marietta, has been selected for technical training in the Air Force weather service field at Chanute AFB, Illinois.

He is a 1977 graduate of Donegal High.
