Randal Zartman receives 'Eagle Award'

Randal Zartman, the son of Mr. Mrs. Robert Zartman of 125 W. High St., Maytown, received his Eagle Scout Award during a court of honor for Troop #93 of Marietta. The award was presented by Ike Studholm, former scoutmaster of the troop.

Randal also got the Citizenship and Communications badges.

He also got a plaque for helping the troop. He has been a scout for nine years.

He holds the Paul Bunyan award, the Order of the Arrow, and has served as scribe, buglar, and patrol leader.

Scout officials attending the ceremony were Jerry Alleman and Mike Moyer.

...art show in Lancaster

Runkle's underwater scene will also go to the nationals.

The judging was done by three teams of artists. It took two days.

To see the exhibit, go around the back of the old Lancaster courthouse (the Grant St. entrance) during business hours. The exhibit will be open from Feb. 25th to March 11th. A special Sunday show will take place on the 26th from 1:00 to 5:00.

Woodworking for beginners

An adult education class in beginning woodworking will start on Thursday, Feb. 23rd, at Donegal

High. The class will meet for 12 weeks, thursdays 7 to 9 PM. Cost is $15 plus cost of materials.

For more information, call Mr. Barry McFarland (the instructor) at 653-1871 during the day.

Community Council plans parade

by Sharon Funk

The Mount Joy Community Council held its February meeting in Borough Hall, at which time "Pride in Our Past" was selected as the theme for Mount Joy's Memorial Day parade being held May 27 at 2 PM. Area church and civic organizations have been invited to enter a float in the parade. Floats must be decorated in accordance with the theme "Pride in Our Past" to be eligible for monetary prizes.

Civic and church groups will be judged separately and each will be awarded 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes. If your group or organization has not been notified through mail you can receive information by calling Vera Gingrich at 653-5160 or writing to Community Council, Box 24, c/o Vera Gingrich.

The Memorial Day Parade is completely funded through donations. Community Council is asking for your support. Parade fund canisters will be placed in local businesses next month. Your donation will insure a successful parade.

In celebration of the holiday, Mount Joy is planning an exciting week-end. The Historical Society is holding a craft and hobby show. Jaycee Carnival is scheduled for May 19&20 and May 26&27. Girls' Softball Tournament begins the 26th, the pool opens on May 27th, and Memorial Services in Memorial Park are May 29. Stay at home on this weekend of events and join in the celebration.

Train your dog

The Red Rose Dog Training Club will form a new class on March 1st at the Lancaster City Pistol Range on Chesapeake Street in Lancaster. Registration time is 7 PM. For more information, call Mary Bard at 656-2931.
