Mount Joy gets library building as gift

A two-and-a-half story building at 22 East Main Street, Mount Joy, was donated to Mount Joy Borough at ceremonies held in the library, which is housed in that building. Miss Anna Mary Newcomer, of RD3 Mount Joy [holding plaque in photo above] gave the building to the borough in memory of Henry G. Carpenter.

She served as Mr. Carpenter's housekeeper and was willed his property after his death. The property is valued at $29,000.

Accepting the building on behalf of the borough was Charles Ricedorf, standing to the right of Miss Newcomer in the photo. He is president of the Borough Council.

On the left is Rev. Whitesel, president of the board of the library. On the right is Ethel Foley, board member.

The library will remain at its present location.

Madrigal Singers

The Madrigal Singers, a group of 20 high school students from Moorestown, NJ, will present a concert, open to the public, on February 25th, at 7:30 PM, at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Mount Joy.

The Singers have appeared on TV, at various music events, and on tour around the U.S. Each member plays an instrument as well as singing.

They will perform early American and Renaissance music, accompanying themselves on guitar, lute, harpsichord, recorders, and krumphorns.

The group is directed by Mrs. Jane Stetler, who has music degrees from West Chester State and Trenton State in New Jersey.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend, free of charge. High school singing groups are especially invited.

Gordon College Choir at St. Mark's

The 29-voice Gordon College Choir from Wenham, Mass., will sing at St. Mark's U.M. Church on Wednesday, March 1st, at 7:00 PM. The church is at 27-29 E. Main Street.

The choir will sing selections ranging all over the musical spectrum: contemporary, baroque, spirituals, hymns, Beethoven, Mozart, Lovelace, Mechem. The choir will sing here as part of a ten-day tour of the middle Atlantic states.

Professor Nutting of Gordon College will perform on the organ. He is the organist of the historic Park Street Church in Boston.
