

Joycee-ettes are guests of Welcome Wagon

The February meeting of the Mount Joy Joycee-ettes was held at the Mount Joy American Legion by invitation from the Welcome Wagon Club. President Sandy Meckley welcomed new member Bev Swanson and guests Diane Redcay, Jana Hamilton, Jessica Crouser, Linda Kershner, and Lisa Corrigan.

Brownie Chairman Vickie Brown reported friendship pins and Brownie 'B' badges will be purchased for the three club-sponsored troops. The Sweetheart King & Queen Contest proceeds totalled $415, which was donated to the Donegal Dental Clinic. Motion was made and carried to enter a float in the Mount Joy Memorial Day parade.

A committee was formed to assist Baby-Sitting Clinic co-chairwomen Jacquie McCurdy and LaVon Harnish. The clinic is scheduled for April 3rd, 10th, 17th, and 29th. The Joyceeettes are planning an Easter egg hunt for their children and a family bus trip to the Philadelphia Zoo on April 29th.

The final order of business on the agenda was the nominations for new officers. Installation of the elected will take place at the Jaycee/Joycee-ette banquet on April 8th, at the Brunswick in Lancaster.

With the meeting adjourned, the club joined the Welcome Wagon members for refreshments. Guest speaker for the joint social was Red Cross worker Joan Rutt.

Marston coming

The public is invited to participate in a news conference with former U.S. Attorney David W. Marston in advance of his lecture here on Thursday, March 2. The conference will be held in Room 130 of the Thompson Gymnasium at 6:30 PM. He will speak at 7:00 PM in the main gym nearby.

Free concert

E-town College's Concert Band will present a free public performance on Sunday, Feb. 26th, at 3 PM in the Thompson Gym. Music will include a medley of show tunes, a symphonic march, and Hanson's Chorale and Alleluia.

Student Sharon Zimmerman of Mount Joy will solo on oboe in two selections.

Other numbers will be by Telemann and Chance.
