Marietta Auxiliary to Col. Hospital will hold food-tasting benefit and pinochle party

The Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital will a food-tasting benefit (with a complimentary wine) on Saturday, May 20th, from 3 to 7 PM at the Donegal Mutual Insurance Company grounds along route 441.

On April 21st a pinochle card party, open to the public, will be held in the Marietta Community House.

The two events were planned at the Auxiliary's March meeting at the home of Mrs. George Houseal. Mrs. William Heisey was the co-hostess.

Mrs. George Houseal is the chairwoman for the pinochle party.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. William Heisey, the chaplain. She read "St.

Patrick's Day" and "Three Days." Mrs. Joseph Gilmartin, president, conducted the business session.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J.R. Baker, 55 Fairview Ave., Marietta, with Mrs. Winifred Buell as co-hostess. A white elephant sale will be conducted by Mrs. Harold Drager.

Haldeman Mansion gets grant to fix up the historic structure

The Haldeman Mansion Preservation Society, dedicated to restoring the old Haldeman Mansion in Locust Grove near Bainbridge, will get $25,000 of Federal Historic Preservation Grants-In-Aid funds if the request of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission is granted in Washington.

This year the PHMC has asked for $874,585 for 24 different projects across the state. All the properties it requests funds for are listed in the National Register.

Pennsylvania has received $4 million of these monies since 1970, when the program started.

Should the money come through as is expected, it will be used to restore the stone and woodwork of the Haldeman Mansion and update the utility systems.

Community Garden Program

The Community Garden Program is blooming with low cost seeds and plants. For those who can't afford their own, a tiller and a mulcher are available. Gardeners who need land can rent plots for a small fee. Soil tests and gardening information are obtainable from the garden worker.

Anyone who is short on the dollar will discover that growing his own vegetables is the biggest bargain in town, with side benefits such as: the tastiest tomatoes for salads, fresh corn on the cob, and more arm muscle.

The community garden program, 111 East Market Street in Marietta, is sponsored by the Community Action Program of Lancaster County. It is open to anyone in the Marietta area. For more information, call the garden worker at 426-2623 weekdays, 8:30-9:30 AM and 4:00-5:00 PM.
