

Irish Indians at Beahm

Inner Ear to try Easter Bunny

The Easter Bunny will go on trial on Sunday, April 2nd, in York. The Inner Ear Club of York College of Pennsylvania, a group of deaf students, will try the Bunny in sign language for the York Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing at Spataro's Restaurant. After the trial skit, the Inner Ear will present a special interpretation of the song, Short People, by Randy Newman.
