Rory Reno

Reno graduates

Rory Reno, 21, of Bainbridge, was among the six members of the first culinary class to graduate from the Hotel Hershey & Country Club apprenticeship program.

Commencement ceremonies were held on March 20th in the Hershey Hotel. A luncheon was prepared for the occasion—cooked by the graduating guests of honor themselves as part of their final exam. The meal was judged by a panel of culinary experts. The students were also judged on the ice and tallow sculptures they had prepared for their final day.

The actual graduation was held the next day, with a guest speaker from the Greenbrier in West Virginia.

Mr. Reno began his cooking career while working in a local restaurant at the time he attended E-town High School. He took a position as cook at the Hershey Country Club, and was admitted to the apprenticeship program the next year.

He was assigned to two hotels while an apprentice: the Hotel Brunswick in Lancaster, and the Breakers Hotel in Florida.

He will continue working at Hotel Hershey as p.m. Sous Chef. He is engaged to Robin Weatherholtz.

Victor Hugo's daughter

Penn State at Capitol Campus is having a film festival. On Wednesday, April 5th, "The Story of Adele H." will be shown at 8 PM in the auditorium.

The film, by Truffaut, is about Victor Hugo's daughter and her mad love for a lieutenant in the British Army. Lots of passion, self-destruction, tragedy. $1 admission.

"Adele H." was voted best foreign film of 1976.
