

Officers are installed and awards given out

Outgoing Mount Joy Jaycees president Jim Wetzel, left, hands the gavel over to new president Bob Stoner.

Sandy Meckley, left, has just handed the president's gavel to Kathy Bower

Mount Joy Jaycees, Joycee-ettes banquet

On April 8 the Mount Joy Jaycees and Joycee-ettes held their annual installation and awards banquet at the Hotel Brunswick in Lancaster.

The newly-elected presidents, Robert Stoner and Kathleen Bower, were given their oaths of office by past presidents James Wetzel and Sandra Meckley. The newly-elected presidents installed the following officers; Robert Hoffer, first vice-president; Gary Graybill, secretary; James McAfee, treasurer; Scott Brightbill, Tim Crouser and Steve Corrigall, directors; Keith Smith, state director; James Wetzel, past president.

Sharon Funk, Joycee-ette vice-president; Jacqueline McCurdy, secretary; Patsy Hoffer, treasurer; JoAnn Frymoyer, director; Sue Thomas, editor; Sandra Meckley, past president.

The Outstanding Jaycee of the Year Award went to Bob Stoner.

Other awards went to Keith Smith, who won the outstanding ways and means project award for his Memorial Day Festival; Jeffery Brown, who won the outstanding individual development program award for the Leadership Dynamics course; Gary Graybill and Rick Rossman who were recognized for outstanding community involvement programs; Tim Crouser and Alan Swanson, who were the outstanding new members; and Joseph Heckert, who got the exhausted rooster award.

Sue Thomas was named the Outstanding Joycee-ette of the Year. Other awards were presented to Nancy Nestleroth, outstanding new member; Sandra Gingrich, outstanding board member; Sue Thomas, Cindy Stoner, and Patsy Hoffer, outstanding chairman; Donna Wetzel, special recognition; LaVon Harnish and Sharon Funk, service to the club; LaVon Harnish, exhausted hen award.

Incoming Joycee-ette officers: Left to right, top row, are Kathy Bower, Sandy Meckley, and Jacquie McCurdy; below are Sharon Funk, Jo Ann Frymoyer, Sue Thomas, and Patsy Hoffer.

New Jaycee officers: going up the left side are Jim Wetzel, Tim Crouser, Keith Smith, Gary Graybill, and Bob Stoner; going down the right side are Bob Hoffer, Jim McAfee, Rick Rossman, Steve Corrigall, and Scott Brightbill.

Exhausted Hen and Rooster: Joe Heckert and LaVon Harnish.