

National Honor Society inductions

27 DHS students were inducted into the National Honor Society on Monday evening. After the ceremony members, guests, and faculty went to the cafeteria for tea.

The five requirements for admission to the society were first explained by society members Karen

Albright, Brian Golden, Mimi Ginder, Todd Garber, and Eileen Penyak. (Each explained one of the five qualities needed.)

Stacy Miller gave the roll call and Becky Ruhl welcomed the new members. Dalene Hummel offered the response. Joi Shearer sang a solo, accompanied by Jolene Lindemuth.

DHS principal Don Drenner made some remarks on the occasion, as did school board member Don Kugle.

Seniors who were inducted are: Barbara Foreman, Donna Germer, Rick Kinsey, Jolene Lindemuth, Debra Ross, Joi Shearer, Judy Sheetz, Kathy Shelly, and Dawn Shireman.

Juniors inducted are: Cathy Beaston, Luann Brennehan, Dean Bricker, Debra Hiestand, Karen deVitry, Dalene Hummel, Susan May, Lisa Mumaw, Alice Musser, Cheri Ney, Robert Pekarek, Keith Pomroy, Barrie Price, Kristen Straub, Greg Zimmerman, and Rebecca Zimmerman.

In addition to those mentioned above; already society members were Nancy Buffenmyer, Diane Deatrack, Lori Gebhart, Denise Grimm, Donna Kreider, Carol Nolt, and Holly Spence.

Band concert

The Donegal High School Concert Band, under the direction of Glen Leib, will present a program of music on Saturday, April 22nd, at DHS. There will be a variety of music to suit anyone's taste, according to Mr. Leib.

The show will start at 8:00 PM and run to a bit after 9:00. Tickets costing $1.00 for adults and $.50 for students are available from band members or at the door.

The 100 plus students will be recorded on the night of the concert, and records will be made from the tapes.

The Band has been rehearsing since January.
