Agneta Wenninger to attend seminar

Agneta Wenninger

Bromma, Sweden, was chosen on the basis of leadership, cooperation, academic achievement, and Humanitarianism. During her year in America, Miss Wenninger is residing with the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Brubaker, R.D.#3, Mount Joy.

In her native Sweden, Agneta majored in the study of Natural Sciences. In addition to her academic studies, Miss Wenninger is an avid tennis enthusiast, and enjoys other athletic activities, reading, and playing piano and guitar.

American and foreign exchange students participating in the 1978 International Leadership Seminar, which will focus on the topic, "America's Incentive System," will have the opportunity to hear addresses of prominent Americans in government, corporate business, in the communications media, and in the technological sciences. The goal of the Hugh O'Brien Foundation's efforts is to inspire young people to express more fully their citizenship through personal leadership.

A Swedish exchange student currently studying at Donegal High School had been named as the representative from her country to attend the Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation International Leadership Seminar, to be held in New York City from April 15-22, 1978. From among 350 Swedish students studying in the United States this year, Agneta Wenninger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Wenninger of
