

Russel and Hazel Kulp

Anniversary party

Russel and Hazel Kulp were honored by their children and friends at a 25th wedding anniversary party at the First Church of God in Elizabethtown. Russ and Hazel were married on March 28th, 1953, in the same church. Russel is the son of the late Morris and Elsie Kulp. Hazel is the daughter of Mary Nauman and the late George Nauman. They lived in Elizabethtown till 1956 when they moved to 314 Birchland Ave., Mount Joy. Russ is employed at AMP in E-town and works part-time at Heisey Sunoco in Mount Joy. Hazel works in the bakery at Stehman's in Elizabethtown. They have three daughters: Deborah, wife of Robert Smeal, Maytown; and Michele and Amy, both at home. They have two grandchildren.

Volleyball Marathon

The Donegal Education Association is sponsoring a volleyball marathon at W.I. Beahm Junior High School on April 21-22. The marathon will last twenty-four hours beginning on Friday the 21st at 3:00 PM and ending the 22nd at 3:00 PM. Students from Donegal will be seeking pledges based on the number of hours they participate. Proceeds from the marathon benefit the DEA higher Education Scholarship Fund. Everyone is welcome to visit. There will be a 25c contribution for non-participants.

Lions' pancake breakfast

Farm Women meet

Farm Women's Society # 8 met in the home of Gladys Ney, Marietta April 15th. at 2 pm. Mrs. Roy Eshelman, from the Lancaster area presented the special feature of the afternoon as she spoke on quilts. This has been her work and hobby for twelve years. She taught a Penn State extension course at the Farm and Home Center. She has had the privilege of demonstrating her work at in Mount Vernon, Virginia. Many pointers on the history, construction, and care of these lovely pieces of handwork were given. The various kinds of quilts from the year 1750 to the present day were described. This is truly an art in which ladies may be creative as they use their individual skills to make designs and assemble colors of material. Several of her own quilts and pillow tops were shown, which gave evidence of her accurate and fine workmanship. Kathryn Heisey, the Society President was in charge of the meeting. Several songs were led by Ruth Musser. Devotions were in charge of Sylvia Warfel. Minutes of the March meeting were read and Roll Call was taken by Pauline Miller in the absence of Secretary Mary Grace Martine. Answers to

"How Do you keep your hands busy?" were given for Roll Call response. 22 members and 3 visitors were present. Mrs. Kathryn Erb expressed thanks for flowers given her during her brief stay in the hospital. Several numbers were played on the clarinet by Beth Raber. Hostessess Gladys Ney, Anna Mae Derr, Sylvia Warfel, Ruth Felty and Anna Chapman provided delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be held May 20th. at 2pm, at the home of Grace Bixler, Marietta R# 1. Barbara Walsh will tell of experiences while in New Mexico.

Pamela Wise

Pamela Wise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Wise, 919 W. Main Street, Mount Joy, will graduate from Lancaster County Day School on June 14th. DID YOU HEAR? Deb Bernhisel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bernhisel of RD1 E-town, made the dean's list at Susquehanna University. She was a Donegal grad.

Correction

In last week's listing of DHS students who were inducted into the National Honor Society, the name of Deana Germer was inadvertently left out. We apologise for our error.

Next week, put your appreciation on record.

Let the record show how much you appreciate your secretary's work. Give her a really easy job to do. Like gazing at a bright floral arrangement. Or a corsage. Or a beautiful plant.

Make an arrangement with your florist now, so your secretary will be greeted first thing Monday morning with flowers.

The bottom line is she'll really appreciate your thoughtfulness.
