When the Hoovers disembarked in Jamaica, they encountered a man whom LeRoy began witnessing to. His name was Alban Wright. "After we had talked for a while, Alban decided to accept Christ, and he did right there on the dock," Rev. Hoover relates.

The Hoovers also visited Curacao, Venezuela, Columbia, St. Andres Island, Cozumel (Mexico), and once again, New Orleans.

On their drive back to Pennsylvania, they stopped in Charlotte, NC, where they ministered at P.T.L. (People That Love). They worked as phone interviewers while video cameras recorded the program.

This program will be broadcast locally on Channel 29 on May 3rd, between 9:00 and 11:00 AM. If you tune in, you may catch a glimpse of them.

The Hoovers greatly appreciate the party their congregation threw for them. It included a smorgasbord and a money tree.

Rev. Hoover asked us to tell the public that on May 14th an all-day session will take place at the church. Rev. John Butrin, youth leader, will minister in the morning; after a light luncheon, an afternoon service with Julius Garrett will be held.

The choir will sing under the direction of James Kenes. The public is cordially invited.

Local Angora

Deb Saurbaugh, a DHS student, displays a phenomenon unique to our local high school: rings wrapped in Angora.

Deb's boyfriend gave her the ring to wear, but it was far too big. So, like other DHS girls, she wrapped it. Girls at other schools don't wrap their boyfriends' ring in Angora. They use inferior materials.

A certain store in Park City, which sells the Angora, has had trouble keeping the stuff stocked due to the hordes of DHS girls who buy it. A wrapping wears out in about a week.
