Special service at Chiques

Chiques United Methodist Church in RD2 Mount Joy will have a special service on May 7th, with the Rev. Geneva Lasley preaching. Reprinted below is a paragraph on Rev. Lasley from the church: "Rev. Lasley moved to community from California where she was the Minister of the Church of Religious Science, Vallejo, CA. Presently, she is an affiliate member of our church. She is faithful in her attendance and support, and loved by those who know her. She was called to the Ministry before she was twenty. She was greatly influenced by Mr. Daniel E. Hahn. For a while she ministered to the criminals at the California Medical Facility at Vacaville. Many were rehabilitated under her ministry and influence. When she left, many said, 'God bless you, Reverend Lasley.' " The service starts at 10:30 AM. Sunday School starts at 9:15. The church begins its summer schedule on June 11th, with Sunday School at 9:00 AM and services at 10:00.

Wyrzten will speak on

"Perversion becoming acceptable way of life"

Jack Wyrzten, Director of Word of Life International at Schroon Lake, New York will be speaking in Lancaster on Sunday, May 7th at 2:30 PM in Mayser Gym at F&M on the occasion of a God, Country and Decency Rally. Wyrzten recently stated that America is being flooded with every kind of a reprobate peddling filth to our nation until perversion is becoming an acceptable way of life to many.

Jack Wyrzten

Wyrzten also stated that adult bookstores, massage parlours, homosexuality, lesbianism, horoscopes, astrology, alcoholism, ouija boards, abortion, ERA, illicit sex and violence on television are destroying our nation's youth. Jack Wyrzten asked the question, "Is there an answer? Is there a future for the youth of America?" Wyrzten believes the only answer is for America to get back to its spiritual foundations.

Jack Wyrzten's career is considered by his friends to be an indication of what God can do with a life that has moved always by faith and without deviation from his original intention of reaching out for teenagers with the Gospel of Christ.
