Vivian Carroll, of 328 E. Market, Marietta, is ready for the food safari with her Japanese hand-painted tea. She will make Egg Foo Young for the event. The tea set has come down to her in her family from maternal grandfather.

International Tasting Safari

The 5th annual International Food Tasting Safari will be held on Saturday, May 13th, from 3:00 to 7:00 PM on the grounds of the Donegal Mutual Insurance Building, Rte. 441, Marietta.

Foods from every corner of the world, with appropriate accompanying wines, will be available at this event, sponsored by the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital.

The will also be a "Kountry Korner" featuring home made foods, and an international crafts market.

Profits from the event will fulfill the Auxiliary's pledge to the hospital's building fund.

A craft door prize will go to a lucky winner.

Fishing derby

The E-town & Mount Joy Forest Fire Crew will be holding their annual fishing derby at the Mount Joy Water Works, next to the Cove, on Sunday, May 21st from 2:00 To 4:00 PM. This derby is open to boys and girls who are 15 or younger.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners of various categories such as: first fish, most fish, smallest fish, largest fish. Two age classes will set up; under and over 9 years old.

Refreshments will be served by the forest fire crew.
