

Don Rickenhouser, Chiques chapter of the Order of the Arrow, is representing Akela, chief of all the cub scouts, in the photo above.

The Western District cub scouts presented an Akela fire ceremony on Saturday, May 20th, at Memorial Field in Manheim. They also held authentic Indian games, an arrow head hunt, and a pinewood derby.

Farm Womens' Society hears Barbara Walsh

by Pauline E. Miller

Farm Women's Society #8 met in the home of Grace Bixler, Marietta R#1, May 20th at 2PM. Kathryn Heisey, president, presided over the meeting. Anna Wolgemuth, in charge of devotions, gave a verse of scripture and some bits of humor concerning a variety of happenings which may occur in the life of a farmer's wife.

Ruth Musser led the group in the singing of a hymn and was accompanied on the piano by Pauline Miller.

Barbara Walsh, Carver Hill Rd., Pennsburg R#1, Pa., gave the special feature of the afternoon. She and her husband spent one year at the John McCurdy Mission School, Espanola Valley, New Mexico. They were teaching and serving in a variety of ways as they reached children of different ages. Even though there were times of testing she felt it was a rewarding experience as they were able to guide young folks to a better life. She showed several tapestries which she had made.

Elizabeth Shuman, treasurer, gave the treasurer's report. Secretary Mary Grace Martin read the minutes and took the roll call. Nineteen members and three guests were present.

Anna Shank has been in the hospital lately. Viola Greider is in room 301 in the St. Joseph Hospital. Sylvester Shuman, husband of Elizabeth Shuman, treasurer, will enter St. Joseph Hospital next week.

Nine members went to Conestoga View recently to entertain folks there. Kathryn Erb reported that twelve members went to the Spring Rally.

The name of Molly Baer, a graduate of Vassar College, was accepted to become a member of the Society at the next meeting.

Doug Estock, a representative of Mount Joy Fire Co. #1, showed photos and drawings of the proposed new Fire House facility. This would be placed in a new location, at New Haven and David Streets.

The Canning Center at 111 East Market Street, Marietta, also encourages those interested in canning to take advantage of their program and facilities.

Hostesses providing tasty, seasonal refreshments were Grace Bixler, Ruth Drager, Anna Wolgemuth, Helen Wivell, and Hettie Ginder.

Mrs. John Wenger, Manheim, will present the main feature at the next meeting as she does chalk drawing. The meeting will be held at 7:00 PM on June 15th at the home of Vera Frey, Marietta RD. Society #28 will be entertained.
