Fun Festival Poster Contest winners

Maytown Elementary School Fun Festival poster contest winners are shown above holding their works. The posters were made to advertise Fun Day, which will be held on the school grounds on June 3rd, rain or shine, from 9:00 to 2:00. Fun Day is sponsored by Parents and Teachers in Partnership [PTP], which supports the kids' creative and scholarly endeavors.

Four Beahm Junior High students were awarded pins by the American Legion and Auxillary. The awards were for the kids' qualities of honor, scholarship, service, Americanism, leadership, and courage.

The awards ceremony took place at Beahm on May 12th. The announcer was Jeff Duke. Donna Hay played a flute solo, and Georgiann Westerman explained the the Legion awards along with Duane Musser. Rev. Edgar Steedle, of the Maytown UCC, spoke to the group.

After a group singing of "America," directed by Mrs. Ansell, principal Bollenbacher dismissed the assembly.

The awards were actually presented to the four students by Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Ruth Rineer, and Mr. Raymond Miller, Jr.
