Helen Pennell retires

Oops! We goofed again! This picture ran in last week's Times, but, for some inexplicable and highly suspicious reason, the caption that should have been under it wasn't—a total blank. Here's what should have been there:

Mrs. Helen Pennell, left, was honored by Seiler School in Mount Joy and the Home Association on May 9th at the time of her retirement as a crossing guard. Mrs. Pennell served in this capacity for 21 years, and helped many children in that time.

Standing on the right in the photo above is art teacher Cheryl Wise, who made the fraktur the two are holding for Mrs. Pennell. The fraktur doesn't show up very well in the photo, but if you could see it, you would say that it is beautiful.

The Times apologises to Mrs. Pennell, Ms. Wise, and our readers for our carelessness.

Denise Grimm wins $500 scholarship

Denise Grimm, of Box 107, RD1 Marietta, has won a $500 scholarship from the Lancaster County Farm and Home Foundation. She is one of 12 high school students in the county to get the award.

Denise will use the money to help her become a nurse. After graduation this June, she will study at St. Joseph School of Nursing. Denise has been a member of the Future Nurses of America all through her years at Donegal.

All the scholarships went to people who will study either farming, home economics, or nursing.

Denise is a member of the National Honor Society and the E-town Brethren in Christ Church. She is the daughter of Dean and Mary Grimm.

... 3 mill tax hike

treasurer; Groff and White as district auditors; and Shirk, Reist and Buckwalter as oil suppliers.

Several budget transfers were approved, totaling $7620.

The approval of a 3-year contract with the district custodial unit was tabled.

Mrs. Susannah Ansell was hired as a junior high music teacher, replacing Mrs. Millard. Mrs. Ansell has been a full-time substitute while Mrs. Millard has been on maternity leave.

Mrs. Sandra Appleby is substituting for Mrs. Flanagan.

District tax collectors were released from further duty, final settlements having been made. Jeffrey S. Bryant of 269 W. Walnut Street in Marietta was appointed Marietta tax collector. He is a 1973 DHS graduate.

A new policy on student records was adopted. The records will not be released until all debts and obligations to the district are paid off.
