...why? (continued)

[continued from page 1] tect your life and property. The contribution you make to them could save you money in the long run, even if you never have a fire or medical emergency in your family. Friendship Fire's volunteers, now canvassing Mount Joy, can arrange for you to make a contribution in installments on monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually. Don't be stingy. They're working for you. If you have any questions about the fund drive or the new or old fire halls, call the development office at 653-5922.

...and a message from the fire companies

Volunteers and friends of the Friendship Fire Co. No. 1, Mount Joy, are in their third week of canvassing the residents and businesses of the fire company running file. Pledges and contributions in the amount of $43,006.00 have been turned in during the first two weeks of canvassing. A volunteer will be contacting you, if you are within the district during the next several weeks. The volunteers are prepared to talk with you and explain the proposed new building and answer any questions you may have concerning the project. Please be receptive to these people. Your pledge or contribution will HELP US HELP YOU by providing a modern facility to house our equipment and train our volunteers. A thermometer sign erected beside the National Central Bank Building, West Main Street, will be kept up-to-date with the pledge and contribution figures. The sign was designed and painted by Warren Foley, Robert Schneider and James Gingrich. It was put in place by Frank Good, Michael Wargo and Steve Hagey.

All Elementary Band to play the Big A

The All Elementary Band will go to the Big Apple on June 7-9 to present a concert at Queen's Lutheran School. Spare time will be spent on the Staten Island Ferry, Radio City Music Hall, and other points of interest. The Donegal musicians will sleep in the basement, chaperoned by 25 adults. H. Morrell Shields directs the group.
